Inspiration:

The challenge of bringing a fresh perspective while following the paths of great painters like Sorolla, Sargent and Zorn, helps me to learn from their rich traditions while continually growing as an artist.

Dawn Whitelaw is one of the artists in residence at On Track Studios in Franklin, Tennessee. She is a founding member of the Cumberland Society of Painters and a charter member of the Chestnut Group. Ms. Whitelaw is currently on the faculty of the Peninsula School of Art and the Portrait Society of America, where she holds the office of Vice Chairman. In recent years, The Plein Air Convention and Expo featured her as an instructor in their conventions in Nevada and California and she was on the faculty for the first Plein Air South event. She currently travels the country to conduct workshops in oil painting principles and drawing. Dawn is an enthusiastic plein air painter receiving 2nd place awards in the Door County Plein Air Festival in both 2014 and 2015. In recent years, she has won awards in The Olmsted Plein Air Invitational, the Piedmont Plein Air Paint Out and in Plein Air Richmond.

Painting Plein air is one of the best ways to improve painting skills.

This class will focus on bringing up the level of basic painting skills such as design, color harmony, drawing, brushwork and edges. The goal for the class is not to change participants style or basic approach, but to help refine and define personal viewpoints. Class size is limited to maximize individual instruction. Demo, lecture, group instruction and critique round out the class.
